

I Met Joni (kind of) © 2004

Doo doo doo doo doo doo

I went to a benefit in LA my friend liked the lead singer of the day we found our seats and to my surprise..... and astonishment there sat Joni with two bodyguards right before my eyes!

Written by Ally Quinn
Vocal, Ally Quinn

Doo doo doo doo doo doo

I'd love to see her in that Chelsea morning,
and I wonder what Carey was like...
Woodstock must have been a hell of a party,

she made those words take flight
did she really feel free in Paris,
or was California more her style, whenever I hear her sing
it always brings a smile

Doo doo doo doo doo doo

So I started to lean forward and get the courage to say "HI" But the bodyguard on her right gave me a look that said :
don't even think about it, suck!
he was bigger than a Yellow Taxi so I thought it best not to try....

Doo doo doo doo doo doo

So I was content to sit behind the legend,
and whenever I'm feelin' blue, I think back to the time, when I met Joni.....kind of

Doo doo doo doo doo doo

I'd love to see her in that Chelsea morning,
and I wonder what Carey was like...

Woodstock must have been
a hell of a party

she made those words take flight,
did she really feel free in Paris,
or was California more her style,
whenever I hear her sing
it always brings a smile

Doo doo doo doo doo doo

Inspiration: I wanted to have a fun, a cappella song to end "Postcards" with and I'd had a song in my head for a while about how I kind of met Joni Mitchell at concert in California. As the song explains, I was very near to her but didn't have the guts to say "HI". I wanted to pay tribute to her and her fabulous songs, so I tried to work some of her titles in there for the Joni fans :) XXXAlly